109 I prefer groups where, to decide issues, everyone has their say and then votes as opposed discussing things until a consensus is reached.

To: 109 I prefer groups in which everyone has a say and then votes instead of discussing things until a consensus is reached.

On the following questions, please circle the response that best represents your feeling.

For example, if you "Somewhat Agree" with the statement, circle "5." If you have any questions, just ask me.

101 When I am with others, I express my true feelings rather than try to make others comfortable.

102 I dislike being in organizations where the responsibility of leadership is unclear.

103 When discussing issues, I tend to say the first thing that comes leadership is unclear.

103 When discussing issues, I tend to say the first thing that comes to mind.

104 When I am in a strange group, it takes me a long time to be able to express my thoughts.

105 At times, I am overly concerned with trying to anticipate the needs of another person.

106 In meetings, I express my views regardless of whether others agree.

107 When in a group that must make a decision, I am the type to try to find a position that every (or near everyone) can support.

108 When working on a different task, I prefer working alone rather than in a group.

109 I prefer groups in which everyone has a say and then votes instead of discussing things until a consensus is reached.

110 I like working in groups where there is a clear leadership structure.

111 A good leader always tries to achieve consensus with his or her followers rather than just telling them what to do.

112 I prefer working in a group where everyone agrees on the decision rather than where decisions are made by majority vote.

112 I prefer working in a group where everyone agrees on the decision rather than where decisions are made by majority vote.

113 I feel more comfortable working with other people to solve a difficult problem rather than working on my own.

When you are finished, please hand these questions back to the interviewer.

Thank you.

Q37 When discussing issues, I tend to say the first thing that comes to mind.

Q38 I find myself feeling more socially awkward when I am in the company of other ethnic groups than when in the company of those of my own ethnic identity.

Q40 I prefer groups in which everyone has a say and then votes instead of discussing things until a consensus is reached.

Q41 In meetings, I express my views regardless of whether others agree.

Q42 I feel most socially at ease when I am in the company of people of my own ethnicity.

Q43 When in a group that must make a decision, I am the type to try to find a position that every (or near everyone) can support.

Q45 I prefer groups in which everyone has a say and then votes instead of discussing things until a consensus is reached.

Q49 When I am with people of other ethnicities, I tend to talk less than when I am with people of my own ethnic identity.

Q42 I feel most socially at ease when I am in the company of people of my own ethnicity.

Q15: "Please read through the list and tell me, for each type of organization, the name of every organization (maximum three) to which you currently belong."

Dear Kamilla:

We talked about this over the phone once, but apparently I cannot find my note I made. Please read the following over to see if my recollection is correct:

Q15... Give the name of each organization to which you belong. Is the membership mainly 1)Mainlanders, 2) Japanese Americans, 3) Other Asia-Pacific Islanders and other Locals, or 4) Mixed (pretty well)?

QUESTIONNAIRE

The Fifth Survey of Honolulu Residents

I am ____ from Election Services Hawaii, and I have come to interview you for the University of Hawaii and the Institute of Statistical Mathematics (Tokyo). They are conducting the fifth survey in Honolulu to find out about different ways of thinking among people of different backgrounds and changes in attitudes since they began the first survey in 1971.

You have been randomly selected from a list of registered voters in Honolulu to be interviewed for the survey. Individual responses will be kept completely confidential. Please note, there are no right or wrong answers to many of the questions asked in the Questionnaire.

Your participation is vital to the success of the study because, to keep our sample as scientific as possible, we cannot substitute other people for those who do not reply. It will take less than half an hour to complete.

If you are interested in the results of the study, a summary report will be sent to you in 2000. Please give our interviewer your mailing address.

Note to Interviewers

If you have any trouble, please have the respondent contact the following person at any time of the day:
